Greg Thompson's SHOWGIRLS

Through October 6

Biloxi, MS--Casino Magic Biloxi and Greg Thompson Productions proudly present, "SHOWGIRLS", featured on HBO and direct from record-breaking runs in Las Vegas, Laughlin, Reno and San Diego. Greg Thompson has reinvented the showgirl for the millennium with a dazzling, sexy show that pays tribute to the long legged lovelies from the Ziegfeld Follies to MTV Video showgirls. "This show is perfect for couples," said Thompson. "The men appreciate the beauty of the showgirls and the women love the wonderful dancing and fabulous costumes."

The Las Vegas Review Journal proclaimed "SHOWGIRLS... a tradition worth preserving" while Las Vegas Entertainment said, "SHOWGIRLS is a fantastic production that is, without question, one of the best dance revues ever produced in Las Vegas in years!"

"SHOWGIRLS" features male vocalist and dancer,

Robin Downward, who starred in the Reno-Lake Tahoe productions of the show. Robin, female vocalist Jessie Terrebonne, and comedian Max Clever, are cleverly interspersed between full-scale showgirl production numbers recalling memories of Ziegfeld girls, Copa girls, Las Vegas showgirls and MTV video girls.

Audiences will recognize several of the showgirls from previous Greg Thompson productions, including Trisha Collier, Kristen Deason, Lindsey Moore, Kelly Newman, Jessica Peters, company manager Deanne Phillips, Stephanie Pitalo, and Julie Rossie.

"SHOWGIRLS" is a spectacular production, staged and choreographed by the legendary Mistinguett and filled with fabulous costumes, beautiful dancers, vocalists and comedy. The show opens May 18 (closed May 19 for a private party) with performances Tuesday through Thursday at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday, at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m. and Sunday at 4:30 and 6:30 p.m. in the Eclipse Show Room. Tickets are $14.95 each and will be available beginning May 12 at the Magic Money Players Club.

Biloxi, MS--The Hard Rock Cafe, located in the Hard Rock Hotel, features live national recording acts. The Romantics will join the cafe for the Grand Opening for three free shows on September 8, 9, and 10. Showtime's for the three nights is 11:30 PM. The show is opening to all ages.

The Romantics, a bunch of hard working street kids from the East side of Detroit who became one of the most influential and memorable bands emanating from one of music's most important periods....

Formed on Valentine's Day, 1977, Wally Palmar, Jimmy Marinos, Mike Skill and Rich Cole -- the original Romantics -- were tough kids escaping hard work, probably in machine shops or factories, but they weren't punks. They were a response to the nihilism of the U.K. punks.

And The Romantics were simple; the best of their music was a joyful affirmation, epitomized by the chanted "Hey!...uh-huh!" intro to the remarkable "That's What I Like About You," a song that still exists precisely in the moment, without before or after.

While it is true that they took much of their simple thunder from the British Invasion, the band's primary influence was the high energy excitement of the late 60s Detroit scene. The MC5, the Stooges, The Underdogs, The Rationals, SRC, The Up. . . The Romantics took the essence of this scene -- sincerity, irony, spontaneity, volume -- and translated it to suit their own modern experience. Their image was innate; they naturally favored short hair and shorter songs and happened on the infamous red leather suits by chance.

The late 70s U.K. punk movement is diluted and misunderstood in America, and The Romantics are, like it or not, labeled "New Wave," a term for the more palatable selling of punk. The Romantics consider themselves well removed from the Sex Pistols' negativity. They don't want rock to go away; they want, as Skill tells a reporter in 1979: "to still have fun with three chords."

After signing with Nemperor Records in 1979, The Romantics released their debut LP, recorded in three weeks. Anchored by "That's What I Like About You," "When I Look In Your Eyes" and a cover of Ray Davies' "She's Got Everything." The album is an exemplary pop-rock period piece.

Distilling the frantic melodies of the Dave Clark Five and the exigency of the punks, The Romantics evokes a youthful portrait, haunting in its innocence, a direct contrast to the tough world they know in Detroit.

The band reaches its commercial peak in 1983-1984 with In Heat, a platinum album bearing two top ten singles: "Talking In Your Sleep" and "One In A Million." This should have been the big payoff, but drummer Marinos departs instead as "success" creates division and confrontation between management and the band.

The foursome returned with "61/49," its most rock solid offering in years. Named for the storied crossroads near Clarksdale, Mississippi where bluesman Robert Johnson made his pact with the devil, "61/49" is intended as a tip of the hat to the roots of rock 'n' roll and the nucleus of the Romantics' fervent pop.

Mixed and Engineered by local heavyweights Steve King (Eminem) and Al Sutton (Kid Rock), "61/49" exemplifies the hook-laden, explosive pop that has made the Romantics among the most memorable rock purveyors of all time. The album's opening track, "Devil in Me," exudes the sexy swagger that is the hallmark of the band's sound while its first single, "Out of My Mind (Into My Head)" showcases Palmar's ruggedly charismatic voice and flare for melody.

As they all want to do, record companies are currently scouring the globe for mop-headed cuties that can peddle the new "garage." Fact is, REAL rock 'n' roll can't be bought and sold like an off-the-rack imitation. REAL rock 'n' roll is a tangible manifestation of heart, soul and commitment. The Romantics are as real as it gets.

For more information on the upcoming Hard Rock Cafe Grand Opening with The Romantics call 228-276-5233.

SPARKS OF PASSION IGNITE WITH KRASNAYA

Biloxi, MS--The Beau Rivage Theatre transforms as Beau Rivage's sizzling new production show takes center stage through Nov. 20. KRASNAYA, Russian for beautiful, is choreographed by Alla Duhova, Russia's top choreographer, and features dancers from the country's top dance company Todesk.

"KRASNAYA centers around dance with amazing acts of athleticism entwined to keep audiences on the edge of their seats," said Terry Burden, vice president of entertainment at Beau Rivage and the show's co-producer. The 85-minute production features a cast of 42 Russian performers. "Alla Duhova is the most respected and sought-after choreographer in Russia, and this show is a testament to her amazing talent and eye for perfection."

Duhova, recently named top business woman of the year by Russian Prime Minister Putin, operates 25 dance schools and studios throughout Russia, Latvia, the Ukraine, and other former countries formerly part of the Soviet Union. One American dance aficionado describes her as "today's Russian answer to Bob Fosse."

Galina Kubrak, president of Tarragon West Entertainment, says it has been many years since a Russian dance company has burst on the scene with the excitement of a Moiseyev or the Bolshoi, and with the modern "cutting edge" style and choreography of Duhova, it is a must see experience. "Her work results in spectacular performances with Rockette precision and racetrack speed," said Kubrak. "Plans are underway for a U.S. national tour of this superb Todesk group, with performances in major theaters throughout the country beginning next fall."

KRASNAYA is a unique blend of this unequalled dance company and the best of the world famous Russian Circus. The acts, hand-picked by Burden, include the "Sphere," a breathtaking aerial display of precision balance and daring moves performed by Anastasia Vasilenko inside and outside of a transparent sphere suspended high over the Beau Rivage stage. "Thorn" is a masterful performance of four petite Russian beauties, offering gravity defying balance on an apparatus that may resemble the "jacks" you picked up as a child. Samoylova, Yulia Tsepova, Zhanna Aminova and Aleksandra Mikhaylova capture your full attention as they weave their way in and out of beautiful and sometime dangerous balancing feats. And if it's a little spice you fancy, you'll love the "Aquarium" and the magical underwater performance of Margarita Khasanova.

Finally, witness some of the fastest, highest and most astounding acrobatics performed at breakneck speed by the Mayorov Troupe. Headed by world-renowned gymnast/acrobat Igor Mayorov, nine of Russia's top acrobatic athletes and one powerful girl astound audiences with their zany antics and pure athletic skills.

Weaving throughout all of this "edge of your seat" talent, you'll laugh till you cry with the traditional (and sometimes not so traditional) humor by some of Europe's most recognized clowns, jugglers and characters. Armen Asirvants and Dmitry Vasilenko will have you holding your sides with their show-stopping surprises.

Individual tickets are $22.95 and $29.95 plus tax and service fee. Show times include 7:30 p.m. Monday-Thursday; 7:00 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. on Saturday; and 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. on Sunday; no performances on Friday. For tickets, contact the Beau Rivage Ticket Office at (888) 566-7469. KRASNAYA room packages start at $85 per person and include deluxe accommodations and a ticket to the show. For reservations or information, call (888) 567-6667 or visit www.beaurivage.com.

BILOXI

Biloxi, MS--Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi, the Mississippi Gulf Coast's newest $235 million resort, is now taking hotel reservations. The casino resort opens in September and is one of the region's most highly anticipated destination resort openings this year.

Hard Rock Biloxi is located on the Gulf of Mexico in the heart of Biloxi with direct access from Interstate 10. Due to the strong positive reaction of the coming of this particular property by the public, it is advisable that guests with preferred dates reserve now by calling 1-877-U-R-ROCKN, or by logging on to www.hardrockbiloxi.com.

Each of the 318 guest rooms and suites in the striking 12-story, purple and white hotel tower is artistically-designed bringing a new level of accommodations to the Mississippi Gulf Coast. Of the 24 suites in the hotel, all have views overlooking the Gulf of Mexico or the "happening" Hard Rock pool deck. Standard rooms are equipped with high tech comforts such as 42" plasma screen televisions, touch screen phones, Bose CD Music Systems, High Speed Internet (wireless) and in-room safes. Additional amenities include Aveda bath products and in-room honor bars. Bathrooms boast three showerheads per shower and granite countertops with partial walls between the bath and bedroom. Bedding is elegant-cool with an all-white posh duvet cover tucked beneath a six-foot-tall, deep-purple headboard.

"Staying at Hard Rock Hotel Biloxi should be a definite item to check off on your "must do" list. The rooms are so unique from anything else on the Coast, said Hard Rock Biloxi's VP of Hotel Operations, Roger Kuehn. "And, not only will hotel guests be able to see music memorabilia throughout the casino, but they will be able to view unique pieces on each of the 12 floors of the hotel as well."

Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi is owned and operated by Premier Entertainment Biloxi, LLC, d/b/a Hard Rock Hotel and Casino Biloxi. The $235 million project, scheduled to open in September 2005, will include a Hard Rock casino with 1,500 coinless slot machines, 50 table games, a poker room, a full-service spa, salon and fitness center, a 12-story hotel with 318 rooms and suites, a unique beach pool, five restaurants including Ruth's Chris Steak House and Hard Rock Café, Hard Rock Live®, a 1,500 capacity entertainment venue, plus retail.

$20,000

Biloxi, MS--
Treasure Bay Casino is bringing back the swinging era of big bands, USO shows and a strong U.S. dollar at the USO $20,000 Jump 'N' Jive Cash Giveaway on September 17.

Jump 'n Jive
Cash Giveaway

"We want to celebrate the swinging 40's with a USO-themed event and have a whole lot of fun...and it's a great excuse to give away a bunch of cash to over two dozen of our players too!" said Treasure Bay Marketing Director Stacey McKay.

Entering is easy: For every 600 points earned in slot play from Sept. 1-17, Treasure Seekers members earn one entry into the 8 p.m. Saturday event in Scalawag's Showbar, located adjacent to Nemo's restaurant on the second level of the Treasure Bay Casino.

Just like the USO dances of yesteryear, ten lucky winners will be drawn to pick their swinging dance partner to reveal their share of $15,000 in cash. Ten additional wild-card winners of $500 each will be drawn from all non-winning entries for the Jump 'N' Jive Cash Giveaway for a total of $20,000 in prize money and 25 winners.

"This brings added value to our Treasure Seekers players club card" said McKay. "In September, you can earn our Gift of the Month, receive entries into our monthly giveaway, earn entries for this event and get daily cash back with double points for everyone on Tuesday's! It's why we believe that our players club offers the very best for players every day, every week and every month".

Visit the Treasure Seekers players club for complete contest rules and sign up for your free Treasure Seekers card.

Music Memorabilia

Installation Wraps Up At Hard Rock CASINO

Biloxi, MS--It all started when Eric Clapton, a regular at the first Hard Rock Cafe in London, asked the staff if he could hang his guitar on the wall to mark his favorite bar stool as "his spot." They did, and one week later, a package from the Who's Pete Townsend arrived by messenger with a guitar and a note bearing the message, "Mine's as good as his! Love, Pete." Ever since then, Hard Rock International has been gathering historic, cool, unforgettable pieces of rock memorabilia and covering their walls with them. Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi is no different.

From the moment guests walk through the guitar-handled front doors, a massive two-story memorabilia display wall will greet them including several famous guitars, plus celebrity pants, shirts, awards, miscellaneous instruments, posters, photos and more.

"It will be a very impactful display for our guests," said Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi President Joe Billhimer.

Famous artist memorabilia, called "memo" for short is abundant throughout the property. There will be everything from Cher's pantsuit and Madonna's bustier to Steven Tyler's mike stand covered in scarves and a wardrobe display from all five Velvet Revolver band members. If today's rock is not for you, how about Johnny Cash's guitar and "Man in Black" suit?

"Selecting memorabilia from Hard Rock International's Warehouse in Orlando, Florida was a fun experience," said Billhimer. "We had to make sure we got the right mix of genres and decades to suit all demographics and tastes. We want each Hard Rock Biloxi guest to feel like there is something they can identify with. There is something for everyone whether a local or tourist, young or slightly more mature."

Velvet Revolver

3 Doors Down

One place that is sure to be a hot spot is the casino's Center Bar, located in the center of the casino floor on an elevated platform. Besides being the place to people watch, it will display impressive sculptural guitar trees with guitars from bands like John S. (Marilyn Manson), Elliot Easton (The Cars), Blues Traveler, Metallica, Motely Crue, Depeche Mode and others.

"It's amazing as to the amount of memorabilia that Hard Rock International owns and we are fortunate to have some of what I believe are the best pieces," said Billhimer.

Memorabilia will abound everywhere you look. There is a very high profile B.B. King guitar with one-of-a-kind album artwork. There is a Rolling Stones series of lithographs and Charlie Watts outfit. Miscellaneous guitars throughout the interior include guitars from bands like The Eagles, Jethro Tull, Eric Clapton and Cheap Trick.

Part project owner and former member of rock group, Giuffria, Gregg Giuffria, is also included in a tribute to 1980's heavy metal bands just outside Level 12 in the hotel. The tribute wall display will include guitars, stage outfits displayed on mannequins, posters and photos. Hard Rock Live will also house a permanent cymbal display that can be autographed and returned to the display as bands play the venue.

BONEFISH

GRILL™

Biloxi, MS--The last thing I thought the coast would welcome is another chain seafood restaurant. But, Oh My God, this place is PHENOMENAL!!!! Just like their sister company, The Outback, has wowed us with fresh cut - high quality steaks, consistency, and quality, Bonefish Grill also specializes in only the freshest caught and flown-in-daily fish along with the same consistency and high quality. All of their fish is seasoned and cooked over a wood burning grill and served with your choice of four different sauces, Lemon Butter, Lime Tomato Garlic, Warm Mango Salsa, or Pan Asian style. The appetizers are outstanding as well as plentiful. Their salads, steaks, chops, chicken and pasta dishes are as well!

Our wonderful and friendly waitress Melissa recommended that Cheli, Bebe, and I begin with one of their specialty martinis, the Insomniac, Captain Morgan's Parrot Bay Mango Rum with a burst of energy from Red Bull, being our favorite. We also enjoyed the Hypnotiq Breeze, a tropical combination of Bacardi Coco, Hypnotiq and pineapple-garnished with a glow stick!! And the Bonefish Martini, Stolichnaya vodka, champagne, a splash of cranberry juice, and garnished with an orange slice. For appetizers we gorged on the Ahi Tuna Sashimi, sesame seared, sliced thin tuna with wasabi, loaded Crab Cakes, and the ultimate Bang Bang Shrimp. If you like blooming onion, just imagine the same batter fried on a mound of shrimp with the spicy bayou mayo tossed all over it!! YUMMY!!

With most entree's you get your choice of The Bonefish Caesar, the House Chopped Salad, crisp chopped greens, tomatoes, Kalamata olives, heart of palm and pine nuts, tossed with citrus herb vinaigrette, or the Corn Chowder with Lump Crab. Each were delicious, but Cheli could not stop raving throughout the entire meal about how the House Chopped Salad was the best she had ever tasted!!

We enjoyed a variety of entrees including Chilean Sea Bass, a very light and mild fish. Even Cheli, the pickiest fish eater I ever met, thought this fish was one of the best she had ever tasted due to its filet texture and one she will definitely order in the future.

Cheli had a Filet Mignon with lumpcrab and marsala on the side. A high quality piece of cow, this filet was tender and juicy with a wonderful flavor of its own, but the marsala accompaniment was surprisingly delish!!

I devoured one of the daily specials, Spinach Bacon Gorgonzola Wahoo, although I substituted the Pacific Wahoo for Gulf Grouper. We all loved this fish-of-a-dish!! All entrees are served with your choice of Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Potatoes Au Gratin, Angel hair with Marinara, Island Rice, or Steamed Vegetable Medley. We all opted for the garlic mashed potatoes and ate every bite of it!!

There is so much more to choose from such as the Pistachio Parmesan Crusted Rainbow Trout, sauteed and topped with artichokes and a basil lemon butter, or Chicken Portabella Pasta, fire roasted chicken, spinach fettuccine, portabellas and peppers sauteed with tomatoes, onions, olives, garlic, and capers in a light white wine cream sauce. Hungry yet?! Some of their Grilled specialties include: Cedar Plank Salmon, crusted with chorizo and citrus crumbs, drizzled with lemon butter, Atlantic Swordfish, and Fontina Chops, two thick boneless pork chops topped with fontina cheese and a mushroom garlic wine sauce. There's so many more enticing selections to choose from you need to check-it-out for yourself!!

Did I forget to mention the warm loaf of bread served with a spectacular pesto?! And the desserts...!! We sampled the Chocolate Macadamia Nut Brownie Cake, served with raspberry sauce, creamy vanilla ice cream and fresh whipped cream, the Deep Dish Key Lime Pie, made with key limes fresh daily on a roasted pecan and graham cracker crust, and Creme Brulee, all of which were simply a slice of heaven.

Bonefish Grill is conveniently located at Edgewater Mall in Biloxi. In just the couple of months since it's opening, word of mouth has been crazy!! I myself cannot wait to try some of the Bonefish Grill's many delicacies!! Don't miss the boat, Bonefish is definitely the place to be on the coast!!

CNO Chats with

Meat Loaf

in a National Teleconference to Discuss his Hair of the Dog Tour

That will be Coming to Beau Rivage September 16

Meat Loaf: Is that live, that piano? Can they all hear me? Okay. So, they should introduce themselves individually... and tell me a little bit about themselves and what the hobbies they enjoy.

(Gary Graft) with (Watch) Radio Network: Hi Meat Loaf, how are you?

Meat Loaf: Good, how are you doing?

(Gary Graft): All right, all right. So tell - bring us up to date, if you will, on Bat Out of Hell 3.

Meat Loaf: I knew that was going to be the first question. All right, somehow, you know what, I knew that was the first question.

So anyway, Michael Beinhorn is producing and Jimmy is writing. Jimmy is just - he had some health issues and really physically not up to par to sit in the studio for a long time and do it. So Michael Beinhorn is going to produce and Jimmy is writing.

(Gary Graft): When do you expect we're going to hear it and tell us a little bit about what is...

Meat Loaf: No, I know, and other people are expecting for you to hear it but, legitimately, I think - In about a year from now.

(Gary Graft): What's it - give us a sense of what it sounds like?

Meat Loaf: God, I don't know what it sounds like because, you know, it's like I've had - okay, Bat Out of Hell I was produced by Todd Rundgren, he's completely out of his mind. Bat Out of Hell II is produced by Jim Steinman, he is completely insane. Michael Beinhorn is as odd as the other two, and he's doing III, so I have no idea.

It's going to sound like Meat Loaf singing and then, you know, it's just this - they evolved, you know. I mean, I think 2 sounded different than 1 and they - it evolved.

I mean, it's been how many years, so, it has to evolve, it has to get - I think it's going to be a little more edgy myself, but, that's just how I'm looking at it.

Greg Haymes, with Albany Times Union: Hello Meat Loaf. Let's continue with a little bit of a same thing; are you going to - have you been recording?

Meat Loaf: No. We... Jimmy has been writing and I'm actually - we're doing one of the songs live right now. But it's not a key piece to the record, it's just something we could put up and get our feet wet, and it's a little edgier than the previous Bat records.

So, not quite as melodic, but edgier, I don't know what that means but there you go.

Greg Haymes: So we will get a little bit of a sneak preview on it too?

Meat Loaf: Yeah, you'll get a little bit of a feel. In fact, that's the name of the song, "Only When I Feel."

(John Burgess) with the Commercial Appeal Casino Magazine: "The Hair of the Dog That Bit You," well, what dog prompted the tour name?

Meat Loaf: My dog, (Angus). And there's a saying about a hair of a dog and it's - I think it's basic and I really don't know what it means but other people do so I'm like, you know, it refers to after you've - a hangover, I think.

(John Burgess): Now, you've performed with symphonies on, you know, huge elaborate stages, how large of a band are you carrying on this tour?

Meat Loaf: The same, you know what? It's the same - I've never changed how large it is... it's always been two guitars - actually, it's less than Bat Out of Hell because we had two keyboard players, we had (Styman), and then (Paul Jacobs) took over... and (Paul Glenn) and now, I have a guitar player named (Randy Flowers) from Nashville... and he plays a - he goes up and plays a little keyboard every now - but I prefer the guitar, so the guitar play - the guitar is really - I mean, of course, the piano is big influence, but the guitar has influenced me more than piano. And so, I don't know how many people that is. I have two singers, drummer, base, two guitars, piano, and me.

Peter Tattersoll with the Sun Herald: Do you have any upcoming acting projects?

Meat Loaf: I believe so, but you know what, until the deal is done, you can't ever talk about it. That's it, yeah, superstition. Like you can't face two mirrors together, that's why barber shops went out of business.

Peter Tattersoll: But do you consider yourself an actor who sings or a singer who acts?

Meat Loaf: I don't know. I consider myself a dog trainer. I don't know. I'm an actor who sings... Because I started as an actor. Well yeah, I did start as an actor and then I kind of did music, and then I did acting, and then I've been to music, and I've done, you know, acting and kind of back and forth.

Peter Tattersoll: And does acting give you more personal satisfaction than you find in music or...

Meat Loaf: No, they're different. I mean, when the shows are - when the shows are really gone, I'm getting, you know, I'm really getting long in the tooth now and when the shows are good, that's great, you know. I'm not crazy about the moving around part. I enjoy doing the show. It's the moving around part that kills you. The one, you know, getting on a bus or getting on a plane and doing whatever. That will just - it just kills me, it's like, you know, we were in Europe and we were flying a lot in Europe so - and we, you know, we had our own plane and we were - but sometimes, after the show, you got an hour, you know, 45 minutes to the airport and to - I know it sounds stupid but it's exhausting. You know, and then you've got to go back through customs and (unintelligible) that's too much. But I enjoyed doing the shows. The shows are - The shows, so far this year, have been really good. Some - They've, you know, been right up there with some of the really good ones we've done.

Peter Tattersoll: And a follow - I'd like to know what kind of music do you like to listen to?

Meat Loaf: Oh, I don't know. I listen to everything just to see what they're all doing. I really do. I listen from, you know, to 50 Cent to Faith Hill. So - Because I want to know what everybody's doing, I just want to hear it.

Scott Cronick with the Atlantic City Press: Getting to your television-movie stuff, is there a project that you ever turned down that you wish you didn't?

Meat Loaf: Well there was - there is - there's a project that happened long time ago that I didn't turn down, it was just - it was taped and it was One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest with Jack Nicholson. And I was going to play the role of Billy Bibbit and they had a writer strike. I was all set. We were going to Seattle and everything and they had a writer strike.

Michael Douglas was producing and then they flipped directors and Milos Forman was trying to find me and I had an agent at the time who told him I wasn't available and I was just sitting over in London, I was filming Rocky Horror and I'm done, and I'm just having fun in London, and the agent said I wasn't available and when I got back to town and they said, "Man, Milos Forman has been looking for you." I actually called him at 1:00 in the morning. And he said, "Oh no, I got - Oh, oh, this is a problem." And he had hired, I can't remember his name now. That actor - He waited on me, he said, "I waited on you as long as I could." and he hired the guy that afternoon. I was like, you know... eight hours late from calling him. And other than that, no, there's nothing I've turned down because I think I've been right in anything I've turned down. There's, you know, there's stuff I've wanted and they've said well, "We don't want you to have this, we want you to have this." And I go, "I don't want that, I want this."

Jeff Niesel, with Cleveland Free Times.: Hi Meat Loaf. I know last time you're on tour, you played some Hedwig songs. Are you still doing that? And what do you like so much about those tunes?

Meat Loaf: Oh well, it wasn't a Hedwig song. If you really knew Hedwig and you noticed the other thing, the lyrics were different and it was written by - oh, (Steven) - oh god, oh man, I'm getting old. (Steven) - it's driving me nuts now. But he changed the lyrics from the Hedwig. I really like Hedwig. I really like Hedwig. And he changed the lyrics and the whole middle part was about me growing up in Texas and this whole thing and he actually wrote two new versions and we changed the chorus. So it was kind of a same song, but not the same song.

Jeff Niesel: Oh, I see. Are you still playing those tunes?

Meat Loaf: No, we're not playing that song now.

Jeff Niesel: Okay, it's too bad. I thought they are really good.

Meat Loaf: Oh, we got good songs now too. We got - Well, three that, one, my daughter wrote, Pearl, and then a cover, and then a new song. Only When I Feel, so - and so, we've got three new ones.

Cheli Strumila with Coast Nightlife Observer.: Hello Meat Loaf. I just like to thank you for all the music that set the mood for so many of my wonderful memories.

You've worked in the past with "a roster of eclectic artists" including three-time Grammy Winner, songwriter (Diane Warren), Nicki Sixx from Motley Crue, Kevin Griffin from Better than Ezra, and Stephen Trask, composer and lyricist from Hedwig and the Angry Inch, since that statement, who else have you added to that list? And of all the new artists out today, do you have any favorites?

Meat Loaf: No, I guess, Pink isn't a new artist anymore; but I really do like her. And - no, I like - there's so many else I like and I can't remember their names. I'm telling you this is terrible. And...

Cheli Strumila: Well, have you worked with any more? Have you actually worked...

Meat Loaf: No, not at all. We've just been - What did I do? I did like three little films last year and then we - I set around a lot last year because the tour before, I thought I was going to die. I mean, I really just - I couldn't ever - I had the flu four times, I had a little - I had an intestine surgery that I had to have, then I had the heart procedure and I just - this was one - and then I went to a race track and got -burned my vocal chords with nitroglycerin and Clorox bleach from being on the track, and it was just a miserable, miserable - it was awful. And I - I didn't think I was ever going to do anything again, and then, you know, I just said - everybody kept calling, and I said, "Well, give me some time off and let me just get back to get my head back." I got to get back on the horse because it was so painful it - I've never experienced an evening like that and it was actually horrifying. And - But we got back on, we've done 20 shows so far and they felt really good and it's been really good and the band's unbelievable. I literally - I mean, my band is just - I take no responsibility for them other than - I don't take any responsibility, I can't even say I helped them -really put them together and my daughter did help put some deal together and - I mean, over the - but they're fantastic. I mean, they just - they blow me away every night...

Cheli Strumila: Well, you know, I'm excited to see you when you come here to the Beau Ravage on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

I recently walked in to a local music show and the place is so empty, yet I go on pay sites on the Web and there are millions who are downloading music. What do you think about the file sharing that is going on through the Internet today and do you, as an artist, receive your fair share from the music that is downloading on such type sites as Rhapsody and Napster?

Meat Loaf: As an artist, you've never received your fair share, bottom line. And there's not a single artist in the world that has been paid what they're owed from a record company. And, they're definitely not getting paid from the Internet and how do I feel about it? Well, I think it's not right to file share, but in some ways it's good because people are constantly seeing your name and downloading stuff. But I don't think that's - I mean, I think it's good to have your name out there and then, you know, and help sell tickets, and if you're in my situation kind of keep you going. And - but at the same time, you know, it's not fair. It's like downloading movies or, it's like stealing, it's like going - I'm seeing this in Europe a bit, so, you know, if you go in would you, you know, would you beat up your dentist and walk out or, you know, you need to pay for things and it's like stealing and it's kind of like that musical Rent, it kind of set the tone for all these stuff and it really pisses me off actually.

Cheli Strumila: Yes. But, from with what I understand like with the Rhapsody and Napster, you're actually paying for the downloads. So these companies aren't paying the artists?

Meat Loaf: Oh, you know, well, I couldn't tell you in a million years about that dear. I don't even know what you were talking about. You know, I didn't know what Rhapsody and I just thought you meant the file sharing where they're just, you know, basically taking it because they do that with movies and - because you have the thing where they can - yeah, file sharing, that's exactly right. And not- you're not getting - you may get a - what do they pay? Three bucks for file sharing or something?

Cheli Strumila: With Rhapsody you're paying 9.99 a month, download whatever you want and if you want to burn it your pretty much paying the price you would pay if you bought it at a music store.

Meat Loaf: Well, you know, there should some way to figure out how to split that between 8 million artists.

Phil Schwartz with the Daily Gazette: The Bat Out of Hell is a - such a huge phenomenon and that was kind of stretching over 30 years. Why does it take you 15 years to kind of between albums that just continue the story?

Meat Loaf: Just, you know, we just do other things. I have no explanation for that other than, you know, time passes - time flies actually... you know, it doesn't - honestly, it doesn't feel like 30 years. I mean, it's been 10, 11 years since Anything for Love and it doesn't feel that. I mean, it really does not feel that.

Phil Schwartz: Is it scary to follow up on a, you know, these two past albums that have been just so phenomenally...

Meat Loaf: No. Nothing's scary anymore. The only thing that's scary is, you know - the world is scary...you know, we're like, you know, we help - we - if we do some good for people that's great. But, you know, there are so many other things to be worried about and scared about. But, no it doesn't - I just go in, I'm going to do the best I can do and I know Jimmy is going to, you know, do the best he can do and I know Michael Beinhorn is going to do the best he can do and I know that the management company is, you know, all over this thing, and they're really, you know, we're working on the cover and we're - so - we just do what we can do and it comes. And it's going to be really - it's going to be good, I mean, I can feel that. I think it's going to be very good, and so - and I think it's going to be a little different, it's going to be interesting.

Phil Schwartz: Yeah, well said. And from what I can tell, teenagers are still listening to Paradise by the Dashboard Light...and that's - that seems quite amazing to me. What do you think that it's still being picked up by kids...

Meat Loaf: Because it doesn't change. It - that emotional thing does not change. That story does not change especially, you know, the stop right there and emotionally people have been the same for a long time, forever, as far as I know. I mean, I think cavemen kind of got into this realm as well, you know, they just used clubs, it was a different thing. And they drag them by, you know, you hit women over the head and drag them by the hair.

Bob Ross of Tampa Tribune: You've been, of course, you've been so busy. I mean, you've been on tour, you've made at least a dozen movies since Fight Club and I think you got three in the can that haven't even come out yet. So I'm wondering what you do for your health work out routine or whatever?

Meat Loaf: Well, I've got a gym in my house and I look at it. It's a very nice, little gem and it's - it looks great. No, you know, it's like, I do, you know, I don't do a lot but I do enough to, you know, keep me kind of moving. I mean I'm not, you know, I'm not pumping iron, by any stretch of the imagination. Obviously, you can tell that.

Bob Ross: The other thing, I hate to bug you but editors are editors and they want to know how old you are and I found three different sources. The All Music Guide says you were born in '46, the Internet Movie Database says you were born in '47...What's the deal?

Meat Loaf: I'll tell you what my passport says. Fifty-one.

Bob Ross: Hey, how long is this tour that you're on?

Meat Loaf: We're going on until October 1. Short. It's not long.

Bob Ross: And did you play stuff from all your albums?

Meat Loaf: No, not from all of them. We'd be up there for about four years. What are we playing from? I don't even know what we played from. We - I got - we, you know, we've got like - I don't know, it's pretty fast this year, though. We - it's a little fireball of a show. It's like the shortest show we've done and we've got as many songs and it just doesn't stop. It's - and it's an aerobic workout, is really what it is. It's my Jane Fonda video.

Thomas Demopilis The Daily News Saratogan: I guess, first up, have you ever snuck into a midnight showing of "Rocky Horror" picture... Dressed as your character?

Meat Loaf: No, Not since we were actually doing - I was actually doing it on Broadway and Tim Curry and myself - Tim had two friends in town and we went down to see the movie. And at the (Waverly) and they wouldn't let us in. and I said to them, I said, "Wait a second, this is Tim Curry, the star of the movie." And Tim his - he had - he didn't have his hair. And she goes, "It doesn't look like him." And I said, "But - and I'm Eddie," and he goes, "It really doesn't look like you." Because I was wearing a wig in the movie and now, you know, I've got my hair down, she goes, "He's got black hair." I said, "It's a wig." And the woman running the thing and eventually we got in and she passes by me and leans over and goes, "This better be you in this movie." I was like going, "Okay, yeah." So that's been the last time. I mean I have done some promo because (Lou Adler) was very gracious in allowing the video, Paradise by the Dashboard Light, 30 years ago, to be like a trailer to the movie. So Paradise ran in all the movie theaters thanks to (Lou).

Thomas Demopilis: I guess second of all, in - from a fan's perspective, earlier in your career, you had shared the stage with like the Stooges and The Who and the MC5 an ...I mean do you carry - as a rock and roll fan from - I mean when these bands were at their prime or in their prime I should say, do you carry around memories of that era?

Meat Loaf: Oh, I do. I'm much more of a fan of the late - them, you know, mid to late 60s and the early 70s as far as the rock bands go, because everybody strives to be completely different. I mean you couldn't wear the same clothes, you couldn't have the same amp. You could have a Fender, but you had to make your Fender look different than the Fender from before. It's like, if you go talk to somebody like (Ted Nugent), if you can, you know, feel talk to you about this stuff, you know, it's like he was like the Spinal Tap, his went to 11. And you know, they had to play different guitars and they had to be - everything had to be different. And there was - that - if you go look at Woodstock and just look at the various artists that were on Woodstock, how - oh, god, I'm old. I hate this when I can't think of one - but it was so varied in its whole concept and now that you look at festivals today, then it's all heavy metal, it's all folk, it's all rap, it's all this, where Woodstock is the best example and it didn't make any difference. It was about the music and it was about all the music. And that was like radio, back then. Radio played whatever it could play. And now all of sudden, radio went off to, "Okay, now we're going to play, you know, country, we're going to play modern country, we're going to play hip-hop country, we're going to play, you know, hip-hop, we're going to play rap, we're going to play gangster, we're going to play heavy metal, we're going to play new wave, we're going to play" - you know, I don't even know what the hell they're doing. So I can't even keep up with it anymore.

Thomas Demopilis: Oh, yeah. Except for Pink.

Meat Loaf: Well, yeah, because I think she's very talented and I really like her voice.

Sean Daily St. Petersburg Times: Hey listen, I want to know, do you ever get approached by Fight Club fans, like they creepy ones? Like seeking enlightenment from Bob?

Meat Loaf: No, I've never been approached by creepy ones. I get approached by Fight Club fans all the time.

Sean Daily: Hey, 30th anniversary of "Bat Out of Hell" is coming out, any plans to celebrate in a certain way?

Meat Loaf: Yeah, yeah, yeah. they are planning to do something.

Leslie Martin The Weekender: Now, I was going back to your movie career because I loved you in Fight Club, what was the best role you've played in the movie, the most enjoyable for you?

Meat Loaf: The best role for me was a movie called, "Focus" by Arthur Miller with Bill Macy and Laura Dern and David Paymer. And Arthur Miller was actually on the set and he came onto the set. I mean it wasn't because he came to see it was just per chance that he came the day that I'm shooting the big scene that I had and it was like, you talk about being nervous, here's Arthur Miller and you're up. And I mean it's like, oh man, it was with Bill Macy so that helped some, I wasn't all by myself. But when he showed up, it - the camera was on me, it was on my turn-around...but he liked it, it was very cool.

SEPTEMBER 10 & 11, 2005

MS Gulf Coast--A record number of seafood booths will participate in the 24th Annual Biloxi

Seafood Festival, September 10 - 11, at Point Cadet Plaza in Biloxi. Organizers are also expecting a record number of attendees.

The Biloxi Seafood Festival is one of the largest events in the state and was selected as one of Southeast Tourism Society's Top 20 Events for the month of September 2005. Kimberly Nastasi Crim, director of the Biloxi Chamber of Commerce, thinks this year will be one of the festival's best.

"The Biloxi Chamber of Commerce, along with our numerous volunteers and community supporters, have worked hard to organize an outstanding Biloxi Seafood Festival," Crim said. "This event is the premiere celebration of the seafood heritage on Mississippi's Gulf Coast. Any type of local seafood you can think of and more will be represented in scrumptious style."

Culinary highlights include boiled shrimp, fried shrimp, fried fish, seafood po'boys, shrimp salad, seafood jambalaya, shrimp spaghetti and even alligator sausage. And don't forget about the Annual Greater Gulf Coast Gumbo Championship on Sunday. The gumbo competition, which is open to the public, is held from noon until 3 p.m., and for an additional $5 visitors are invited to sample more than 20 delicious kinds of seafood gumbo.

In addition to fabulous food, the Biloxi Seafood Festival will feature continuous live entertainment from jazz, blues, zydeco, country and contemporary bands, plus more than 80 arts and crafts booths.

There will also be several activities for families like the Kiwanis Kid's Fishing Rodeo, the boat show, a 5-K run, and free admission to both the Maritime & Seafood Industry Museum and the J.L. Scott Marine Education Center.

The Biloxi Seafood Festival is organized by the Biloxi Chamber of Commerce and the City of Biloxi, and sponsored in part by Harrison County, The Sun Herald, Beau Rivage Resort and Casino, FEB Distributing, REX Distributing, Roy Anderson Construction, Yates Construction, and WXXV Fox 25.

Biloxi Seafood Festival was named MS Tourism Association's

WINE SOCIAL THURSDAYS Master of Wine to Attend Mignon's Wine Social

Biloxi, MS—Mignon's Steaks & Seafood, the premier fine dining restaurant at the Palace Casino Resort, will host its upcoming wine social on Thursday, September 1st. The wine social will feature special guest Peter Koff, winemaker for Fairest Cape Beverage Company.

Koff is a native of South Africa and developed a profound interest and taste for fine wines. His desire for knowledge led him to the Cape Wine Master Examination, which he passed in 1984 to become one of only five Cape Wine Masters in South Africa. In 1987, Koff emigrated from South Africa to the United States and was given the opportunity to fulfill his lifelong dream of entering the UK Master of Wine program. In 1993, Koff qualified as a Master of Wine and became one of twelve in the United States and one of thirty in the world. Later, Koff saw the opportunity to be independent and to be involved with his wholehearted hobby, and, in 1995, he began a wine import and wholesale business. Today, Fairest Cape Beverage Company represents some of the finest wines in the world including cult wine from California, award-winning Pinot Noir from Oregon, world-class Barbaresco from Italy, and the finest Pinotage from South Africa. Koff currently resides in Irvine, California and will attend the Mignon's September wine social.

Mignon's is home to the monthly wine social, which offers class, a fabulous social scene, a relaxing environment, and, of course, wine. Held on the first Thursday of every month in the exquisite Mignon's Lounge, the wine social is held in a delightful atmosphere with heavy hors d'oeuvres and numerous wine representatives offering samples of their wines.

The wine social is $25.00 per person and is held from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in the Mignon's Lounge on the second floor of the hotel. For a classy and sophisticated night of wine tasting, call Mignon's at 228-386-2023 for reservations.

More Than a Coffee Shop

Biloxi, MS—I was at the local grocery store the other day and ran into a friend that I hadn't seen in years who lives here in Ocean Springs. We greeted each other, chatted about old times and when asked what I was doing now I answered "we opened up a restaurant called Coffee Fusion Bubbletea Cafe." I then invited him to come by sometime. To this he replied "I've seen the place but I really don't care for coffee, thanks anyways." My heart sank as I realized that a lot of local people probably don't know yet that we are a full restaurant and not just a coffee shop. Also that we have literally hundreds of different drinks, that don't have coffee in them or don't taste like coffee. I understand that we have the word coffee in our name, but we have the words "BubbleTea" & "Café" in our name as well, which means restaurant. We offer over 40 food items on the menu and daily specials. We serve breakfast all day long featuring bagels with cream cheese, or bagel sandwiches with egg, cheese and your choice of bacon, ham or sausage. In addition we have Oatmeal with fresh fruit, and French toast. We also have a huge healthy lunch menu with a large selection of Grilled Italian Panini sandwiches, fresh Gourmet Salads, healthy wraps and our signature Grilled Croissants. Side Items such as fresh fruit cups, gourmet chips, and homemade pasta salad. We offer a kids menu, and hot soups in the fall and winter. And I believe we have one of the largest dessert selections on the coast. Homemade Italian Cream Cakes, cheese cakes, cookies, brownies, and pies and more. The customers rave about our lunches and the fact that it's one of the few places on the coast to have a healthy gourmet meal. And all of our lunches are priced at an affordable $6.50. And the quality can't be beat. So I have made it my personal mission to let everyone know why we have the word "Café" in our name. We not only have the largest selection of coffee drinks, fresh fruit smoothies and asain bubbleteas on the coast, but a fantastic healthy food menu as well. If you would like to see our whole menu or find out more about us, log onto www.coffeefusionbubbletea.com and check it out.

Hopefully We'll see you for lunch

CNO Quote of the Month

*"If I can throw a single ray of light across the path of another;
 If I can aid some soul to a clearer sight of life and duty;
 If I can wipe from any human cheek a tear,
 I shall not have lived in vain while here.*

Biloxi, MS--And now for the moment all the Coast's been waiting for...the unveiling of the first hot band to play at the new Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi. Hard Rock Biloxi announced today that modern rock band, VELVET REVOLVER, is to be the first ticketed band to perform at 8 p.m. Friday, September 9 at Hard Rock Live. Tickets may be purchased starting at 10 a.m. Monday, August 15 at ticketmaster.com for $125.

VELVET REVOLVER will christen the 7,500 sq. ft. Hard Rock Live venue at the new Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi with a full out rock and roll concert. The venue has 4 million dollars in sound and lighting equipment and can host up to 1,500 people. Concert-goers will get that real concert arena feeling with standing room only on the floor and the ability to get up close and personal. VIP guests can watch the show in style with 388 balcony seats and relax in the adjoining, very elaborate bar and lounging area just off the entertainment venue and overlooking the gaming floor. This will also be the place that VIPs get to meet and mingle with the entertainers performing at Hard Rock Live. All Hard Rock Live concert attendees must be 21 or older.

Everything you've heard about VELVET REVOLVER is true. This is the band that brings together three former members of one of rock's greatest groups Guns N' Roses--Slash, bassist Duff McKagan and drummer Matt Sorum--together with one of rock's most charismatic front men, Scott Weiland, formerly of Stone Temple Pilots, and guitarist Dave Kushner, ex-Wasted Youth, Electric Love Hogs and Dave Navarro's band, among others.

"The band was chosen as the first to play Biloxi for its popularity and authentic true rock and roll roots. We know from our market research that there are high entertainment expectations from locals and we think they will love our choice of Velvet Revolver and other upcoming entertainment," said President of Hard Rock Biloxi, Joe Billhimer.

The idea behind VELVET REVOLVER remains a powerfully simple one. "There is no real concept to me," explains guitarist Slash. "We set out to make music we enjoy and can feel proud of playing--music that people we like will want to listen to. As soon as you start thinking beyond that--about wanting to keep up with the Joneses or about fitting in with somebody else's format--that's when you lose the map. So we've just done what we do, and tried to have a cool time doing it."

The band recently released, "Come On Come In" for the Fantastic Four film and since releasing their debut album Contraband on RCA in 2004 -- a record that Rolling Stone hailed as "modern-rock nirvana...vicious, unapologetic..."--VELVET REVOLVER have become rock's most exciting and successful new band. CONTRABAND has now sold over three million copies worldwide, earned a Grammy Award, shattered records and garnered massive critical acclaim.

CONTRABAND debuted at #1 on the Billboard album chart, selling over 250,000 copies. Notably, this marks the best-ever debut for a new rock artist in the SoundScan era. Newsweek describes the band as "truly explosive" and Maxim says, [Velvet Revolver} "bring unpredictability back to rock."

VELVET REVOLVER is everything the band's name suggests and much more. This is modern rock with a sense of danger and beauty that's been missing for far too long. Their suitably explosive yet gorgeous debut effort Contraband marks the spot for a new beginning from a band of rock & roll brothers united by some legendary pasts and a suddenly brighter future.

Slash, McKagan and Sorum came together to play a benefit/tribute for their friend and fellow musician Randy Castillo in 2002. The buzz of playing together again got the three thinking. "There was still something very powerful and intense between us," says Slash. "That chemistry never went away," says McKagan.

Sensing enough time had lapsed since their less-than-pleasant departures from Guns N' Roses, the trio linked with Kushner--a high school friend of Slash's who had been playing with Duff in recent years. "He's our secret weapon," says Duff. "He plays amazing textures and he can handle himself with Slash." After some false starts with other musicians, the four decided to try an unusually open call for a new frontperson.

Documented by VH1 cameras for an upcoming special, this process turned out to be long and sometimes painful. Fortunately, as the Great Lead Singer search was going on, Duff was spending time socially with Stone Temple Pilots then front man, Weiland. Now the rest is history. Weiland was the perfect fit they were looking for.

For Slash, "We were like a bunch of kids who just learned how to play the same chord together. That's what it's been like every time we've done something together. We're thrilled, like 'Hey, we wrote a song!' 'Hey, we played a gig!' Maybe that's why this has worked--because we're actually the opposite of jaded."

Early in its evolution, the group released the song "Set Me Free" on The Hulk soundtrack and recorded a cover of Pink Floyd's "Money" for another movie, The Italian Job. When it came time to sign a deal and record their first album, the band chose RCA in part because of the interest of Chairman Clive Davis. "Clive actually flew out here and courted us, and he watched us rehearse along with his little posse," Slash remembers. "It was really flattering because he's such an icon and he's been doing it for so long and can really recognize something."

That decision made, it was time for VELVET REVOLVER to take aim and make their first album. Now the band is on tour and you can see them play the Mississippi Gulf Coast for the first time only at Hard Rock Live at Hard Rock Hotel & Casino Biloxi.

band wins a regional competition with a recording contract as the grand prize. But Atlanta based alternative rock band Illbreak did just that with Imprint Records' "Search for the Next Rock Star" contest held last summer. Imprint Records is the label owned and operated by 3 Doors Down bassist Todd Harrell and his wife, Jennifer. After sifting through over a thousand entries for the competition spanning six states and representing 11 rock radio stations, 11 finalists were selected and Illbreak was the unanimous choice selected by the panel of judges made up of several industry veterans, including major label A&R reps.

The album's first single, "How It Feels," is an emotive track balancing slick production, walls of guitars and the powerful voice of lead singer Gareth Asher, and one that is sure to put this new band on everyone's radar in a hurry. Other standout tracks are the haunting and melodic "Wake" and "Carry The Light," the riff-laden "Flesh & Bone" and the breezy "Safe."

Together as a band since 2002, Illbreak is a four-piece guitar-driven alternative rock band that has drawn comparison to Incubus, Live and Tool. But while those comparisons only serve as a reference point, Illbreak has a unique sound with an explosive live show that sets them apart from other

When asked how it felt to win the Imprint contract, drummer Matt Payton conveyed the kind of confidence that is likely to take Illbreak to new levels. "We were stoked," Payton says. "We knew we had something and the competition just confirmed it."

3 Doors Down's Todd Harrell agrees with Payton. "From the moment I heard the music, I knew they had something special, he says. "Out of thousands of bands, Illbreak had the most unique sound, strongest guitar riffs, and strongest vocals. I am proud to work with them and give them the same opportunity I have had."

Illbreak's debut on Imprint Records, The Flood, is due for release on September 1. The Flood was produced by an impressive team consisting of Chris Henderson (guitarist for 3 Doors Down), Paul Ebersold (producer of 3 Doors Down's The Better Life) and Geoff Ott (engineer on 3 Doors Down's bands. They have been honing their song writing and musical chops by performing locally and regionally, and aside from the aforementioned bands, Illbreak's influences range from The Police, Radiohead, 311, The Cure, Deftones, Joe Satriani and Dream Theatre. Illbreak is already getting a taste of bigger things to come, as tour dates to support The Flood are in place with 3 Doors Down, Staind, Breaking Benjamin and No Address.

Bar Hoppin' With Shona
 By Shona Wright

LIVING AT The Edge

Biloxi, MS—Like most of the Coast's barhoppers, I have a slight phobia of crossing over that dreaded barrier (the I-10), especially if the journey is going to involve drinking. However, at Cheli's behest, I recently gathered my courage and followed the party path least traveled to check out Orange Grove's trendiest spot for hot nightlife.

On the night, (ehrr...morning) I headed North, I had barely cleared the entryway when I began to understand what makes The Edge the most popular bar that side of the Coast; it's the people. A full-scale birthday party for regular Tallin Tillman was just starting to fizzle out. Without even knowing who I was, Tallin herself greeted me at the door with a big hug and a welcoming smile. While slightly stumbling around she introduced me to employees and friends while explaining that this was like home to her. "Everybody knows everybody, even if you are new," she said. "We have a lot of fun together meeting new people, listening to the music and dancing."

Dancing? The last time I made it to The Edge, I would have classified it as a bar with a few pool tables.

Nowadays, those tables have turned and been pushed into the new expansion room to make way for a stage, DJ booth, and most importantly, yes, a dance floor.

So what's with all this transformation? A recent change in management includes Robert Camp, who joined the team at The Edge with a plan to "set progress in motion, and add fresh faces to a great set of regulars."

The success of this effort not only shows in the inner expansion and the addition of a comfortable lounge setting, but also continues outside the bar into an all-new spacious front patio.

But even a well-built venue needs draws, and The Edge covers all of the Coast's favorite pastimes:

- ✓ Monday's bring karaoke with SP Sound.
- ✓ Pool league is Tuesday nights.
- ✓ Wednesday and Saturday nights, DJ's T-Roy and Supercrunk keep the new dance floor slamming with hip-hop, techno and old school tunes.
- ✓ Ladies Night! Females enjoy three free drinks from 9-2 on Wednesdays.
- ✓ Dart league is on Thursdays.
- ✓ Friday nights bring the best of local and regional rock bands.
- ✓ On a trial basis, The Edge is opening its doors to the 18-20 crowd on Saturdays from 9-3 with a $10 cover.
- ✓ Happy hour is 2-7 with 2 for 1 well drinks and $2 domestics.
- ✓ And, of course, The Edge welcomes the Coast's biggest late night crowd (the service industry) with SINful after-midnight drink specials including $1.50 bottles and wells every night of the week.

Here, the bartenders take time to get to know their patrons. During the evening it's like Cheers; everyone knows your name. Later, the place turns into a nightclub, drawing regulars and adventure seekers for socializing and festivities.

Just barely North of I-10, on Three Rivers Road in Orange Grove, The Edge of town proves to be a great place for a change of atmosphere and making new acquaintances. Through renovations and the hiring of several new staff members, The Edge has successfully transformed from a small locals bar into an entertainment facility set to accommodate the Coast's growing crowd of party seekers.

Walter Anderson Museum of Art announces

September 17 Film Premiere at Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center

Ocean Springs, MS--The Walter Anderson Museum of Art is pleased to announce the debut of a biographical film, Walter Anderson: Realizations of an Artist, which will open on Saturday, September 17, 2005 at 7:00 P.M. at the Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center in Ocean Springs.

Producers Winston Riley and David Wolf, two New Orleans independent filmmakers, formed a corporation explicitly to enable them to create this biography, a short segment of which was previewed at the Walter Anderson Museum on September 22, 2004, to an enthusiastic response. Unable to wait for full funding, the producers began making the film in August 2003 using their own equipment, conducting interviews and gathering research in their spare time. "This was a labor of love", said Marilyn Lyons, executive director of the Walter Anderson Museum. "We are thrilled that these talented young men have made a sensitive documentary that epitomizes the essence of Walter Anderson, and especially delighted that the film will premiere at the beautiful Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center."

In Walter Anderson: Realizations of an Artist, Anderson's family members and friends share their stories and memories of the painter. The film also contains discussion with famed scholars and art critics, such as Paul Richard of The Washington Post. John Anderson, Walter Anderson's son, took the filmmakers on a trip to his father's beloved Horn Island in a small sailboat. Conducting an interview with John Anderson on this locale, the producers have captured impressive images of this island, where the artist spent a great deal of time for eighteen years, painting the flora and fauna of the region. This hour-long production also contains footage of Oldfields, Anderson's wife's family plantation home in Gautier.

"We are grateful that so many people stepped forward to assist us in this quest, including The Family of Walter Anderson, The Mississippi Humanities Council, The Booth Bricker Fund, The Mississippi Arts Council, The Reilly Foundation, The Mississippi Film Commission, Dr. & Mrs. Donald Bradburn, The Eugenie and Joseph Jones Family Foundation, and many personal donations", said Riley, producer of the film. "In spite of this assistance, we were still lacking funds, as documentary production is a very costly enterprise. John Mullen of Dallas and New York then presented a very generous gift, enabling us to complete this undertaking", said Wolf, the co-producer. "We are also thankful to Marilyn Lyons, the executive director of WAMA, as well as the Museum staff, who assisted us in the grant-seeking process, which is a very complex one".

The film will be offered to Public Broadcast Services (PBS) for a "hard feed". "Hard feed" is an industry term indicating that every PBS station and affiliate nationwide will have the opportunity to present the program.

The authors of this film have gathered hundreds of relevant photographs, archival footage, and compelling pieces of Walter Anderson's artwork. In the midst of this intense research, Riley and Wolf were rewarded with the unearthing of heretofore undiscovered film of Walter Anderson himself, rowing to Horn Island. In their effort to preserve and highlight the history of this important artist, the producers intend that the documentary will be used as part of a teaching tool within Mississippi state schools, and they will honor any institution's request to view the film or use the film as a teaching aid. It is their purpose to make this documentary widely available, seen by the broadest possible spectrum of viewers.

Light refreshments will be served immediately after the screening. The Mary C. O'Keefe Cultural Center is located at 1600 Government Street in Ocean Springs. Ticket prices are $20.00. Please call (228) 872-3164 for further information.

MS Gulf Coast--Call it a passion. Call it a dream. Or, to quote Jake and Elwood Blues, maybe they're on "a mission from God." But the four members of south Mississippi's Tailbone Smitty have a clear agenda; they want the Deep South and, ultimately, the entire country to remember and enjoy what they call "NOS ROCK", an acronym for new, old school rock-n-roll. In today's world the lines dividing one musical genre from another are getting increasingly blurred. Could this be a product of a "melting pot" attitude for music making? Or maybe a desire for record companies to touch on as many listening demographics as possible? Whatever the reasons, the guys in Tailbone Smitty see this as a wake up call to produce music for those of us who still believe that rock-n-roll is about attitude, loud guitars, lyrics that make sense and a very common but often overlooked emotion; love.

Their story begins in the mid to late 1980's, amidst the decadence of L.A. hair metal bands and "Reganomics" that the first seeds of Tailbone Smitty were sown when high school acquaintances John Wolverton and Jimmy Stockstill found themselves in a local rock band formed by mutual friend and then local junior high band director Jerry Cumberland. Through their growing years John and Jimmy formed a strong, albeit siblings like, relationship that would prove caring but contentious enough to spark a creative team that would develop into the motor propelling Tailbone Smitty some ten years after their initial pairing. In 1997, while writing and producing songs for the Nashville based Ridgewood Music/BMI publishing and production house, Stockstill, feeling the need to expand creatively outside the country music scene, contacted Wolverton with the hopes the two would reunite under the auspices of a writing project dubbed Mosaic. Mosaic's sole reason for existing, at that time, was to function simply as a song factory. This goal would come to fruition as John and Jimmy would find themselves sitting, after three years of writing, with a catalog of some 25 plus songs, several of which would find their ultimate home on Tailbone Smitty's debut album "Bone Appetite", scheduled for release this fall. But this is only one part of the Tailbone Smitty story.

Fate would step in and another important relationship would begin and flourish. Johnny Davis, a Texas native transplanted to the "real South", was a student and player of the best of progressive rock styles since his early days of learning to play. Throughout several bands and incarnations Davis, inspired by Rush bassist Geddy Lee and Yes bassist Chris Squire, began honing his own chops and song writing skills. Leading up to the late 1980's Davis had developed into one of the most in demand bass players north of New Orleans and within the south Mississippi music scene. It was then, in late 1987, that Davis and Stockstill found each other and began writing and playing in a Rush cover group that also doubled as a showcase for their collaborative composing efforts. This band, known locally as White Wing, lasted until the fall of 1989, when Stockstill feeling the old nagging need toward greater personal development, parted ways with Davis and began playing country music both live and in local and regional commercial studios.

Much water under the bridge later, Stockstill in 2002, while freelancing in local bands within the New Orleans area was introduced to a New York born and raised electronics engineer and bass player named Bill Laletin. Laletin was then heading up a cover band called GTO that was aimed at playing more exclusive venues in and around New Orleans and it's Pontchatrain Lake/Northshore region. The drummer for GTO was none other than Wisconsin's own Jeff "Doc" Watson, a veteran musician whose musical resume reads as extensive as Webster's dictionary. Yet again a friendship developed, this time based more around the idea of playing music that was reminiscent of the music the two grew up on- now called classic rock- the best of rock-n-roll music from the early 1960's through the mid to pre/disco era 1970's.

The pieces had finally fallen into place for one of the best musical projects to come out of the Deep South in years. A few phone calls later and Stockstill, Wolverton, Davis and Watson found themselves recording tracks for the first time together as Tailbone Smitty in January 2005.

The songs are a collection of the best qualities fleshed out by fifty years of great rock-n-roll. They take you places you've been before and maybe a few that you haven't. Listening to Bone Appetite is like falling in love again, for the first time. These boys want you to remember what being free, young and passionate is all about, no matter what your age or background. It's rock and roll the way it was meant to be: loud and tender; wild and crazy but mournful and hurting; and always, always fun.

The collective energies of these four musicians have begun to instill hope in a listening audience starved for musical and artistic authenticity. Ladies and Gentlemen NOS Rock is reborn in Tailbone Smitty. Bone Appetit, their debut CD will be on sale in Biloxi at Ace Video & Music, Be-Bop Record Shop, and Sound Shop on September 6th, 2005. Presents
ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN

Biloxi, MS--Biloxi Little Theatre announces the opening of its first season show of the year, "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" on Friday, September 9th. The show will run Sept. 9, 10, 15, 16, and 17th at 8:00 p.m.; and on Sept. 11th at 2:00 p.m.. Adapted by Randal Mylar from the book by Mark Twain, and directed by Renee Dawson, this show will be one for the whole family to enjoy.

Relive the great riverboat days of the Mississippi with Huck Finn, Tom Sawyer and Jim in this new adaptation which premiered at the Denver Center Theatre Company. Adventures of Huckleberry Finn is a folktale chock-full of outlandish episodes, as two outcasts, fleeing down the Mississippi on a makeshift raft, yield to a current that brings a new view of their society and, finally, themselves. You'll want to cheer for the bravest adventure of all when, somewhere down the river, a homeless waif that nobody wants becomes a human being with a sense of his own destiny as a true connection with another human being is made.

 Product of the Month!!!

DICKENS CIDER

MS Gulf Coast--I would like to use this article as an opportunity to introduce a new energy drink that is taking the coast by storm. This energy drink packs twice the active ingredients as red bull, and has a crisp refreshing taste. This power packed beverage is called Dicken's Energy Cider.

Consider this product to be the replacement of all dull energy drinks. Dicken's Energy Cider is fortified with B-vitamins that get your motor running. This Energy drink is loaded with Caffeine to simulate energy and increase mental alertness.

As per the Dicken's Energy Cider web site, they claim that "men think about ___ every 9 seconds, and Women think about ___ every 17 seconds," so this delicious thirst quenching beverage contains Horney goat weed. It has long been believed that Horney goat weed can help sexual dysfunctions. Although research doesn't necessarily prove this, Horney goat weed does help detoxify the liver and kidneys. This ultimate Austrian energy drink also contains a mind stimulating ingredient called Taurine.

Taurine is a free form amino acid that regulates the heart beat, lowers blood pressure, and increases nor-epinephrine which is the brain's adrenaline.

Dicken's Energy Cider has been featured on numerous T.V. shows, Girls Gone Wild, and is used by the Women's National Football League.

So, give your taste buds what they want, and leave the bull for the babies. For more information on this product go to www.dickensenergycider.com or contact Tashia@powershack.com. Remember before starting any new health plan, or diet you should contact your physician. The statements have not been regulated by the FDA and are not intended to treat, cure, or prevent any disease. GOURMET COOKING FAST AND EASY CLASSES RETURN TO WAMA

Ocean Springs, MS--Due to popular demand, The Walter Anderson Museum of Art will offer another series of four cooking classes, taught by professional chef Diane Claughton, one of the two founder members of Ocean Springs Fresh Market, who trained at the Lavender Hill Restaurant in London. This new set of classes will take place on three consecutive Tuesdays, September 6, 13, and 20, with the final class on Monday, September 26th at the Art Cottage across the street from the Museum. Starting at 5:30 p.m., sessions will last approximately two hours. The cost of the four classes will be $135.00 total to non-members, and $120.00 total to museum members, including all supplies. Dishes will be cooked during each session, and participants will sample generously of everything Diane Claughton creates.

Having owned and operated two restaurants, one in England and one in Covington, Louisiana, Diane Claughton emphasizes good wholesome food, local and seasonal whenever possible, and with few or no chemical preservatives. She will introduce students to the art of gourmet cooking requiring minimal time and effort. Among other subjects, topics during the next four sessions will include crab and corn bisque; avocado with warm bacon dressing; Bang Bang Chicken; Asian Noodles; Rustic Fruit Tart; and tasting the differences between homemade and store bought sauces.

"These classes are an epicurean delight", said Marilyn Lyons, executive director of the Walter Anderson Museum. "They will also make a perfect gift, bridal or otherwise, for those who want to experience the preparation of gourmet cooking first-hand."

Diane Claughton is the owner of L'Escargot--The Art of Food, a small food company. With extensive experience working in the hotels and country clubs of Louisiana as an executive chef and as a test chef in England for United Biscuits, Claughton has honed her skills as a gourmet chef who creates dishes quickly for today's busy person. "People simply don't have the time anymore to spend hours slaving away over a hot stove", said Claughton. "But they do want to enjoy fine dining, and I've found in teaching these classes that the students are amazed at how beautifully a refined menu can be put together with much less effort than they previously thought. There are all types of tips that I give them, and it has really changed the way they approach the culinary arts."

In this series of classes, observers will discover the secrets that professional chefs use. Chocolate is a favorite on most people's list, and Diane Claughton will conduct a tasting of this mouthwatering treat, enabling the participants to develop a discerning palate. She will also teach students how to make salmon with South American flair. For those who are a bit bored by making the same old omelets, Diane will demonstrate and serve a refreshingly delicious one.

In addition to the above, Ms. Claughton will answer questions regarding the benefits and drawbacks of organic food.

The Walter Anderson Museum of Art is located at 510 Washington Avenue in Ocean Springs. The Art Cottage is across the street at 505 Washington Avenue. Please call 872-3164 to make a reservation. Spaces are limited.

ANNUAL MISSISSIPPI GULF COAST

BLUES FESTIVAL

Jackson County - September 9 & 10 the Jackson County Fairgrounds will play host to the Annual MS Gulf Coast Blues Festival. Two big stages, food, arts & crafts, and a covered pavilion set the stage for a rockin' good time. The show goes on rain or shine. Dozens of top-name Rhythm & Blues artists, and Gospel choirs. Gates open at 11am. For more information call (228) 497-5493.

Hurley, MS--The popular community summer series Praising in the Park extends its reach to Lum Cumbest Park in Hurley for its fourth monthly performance Saturday, September 24 from 3:00 to 7:00 pm. In addition to live music provided by multiple bands, families will also enjoy free pony rides, wagon rides, a petting zoo and a puppet show. The public is invited; admittance is free. Folks are encouraged to bring a picnic and enjoy the fellowship.

Billed as "a free celebration of the unity of Christians for fellowship and to praise God thru music," the event features Band of Faith (collective genre), Jacob Blue (pop/rock) and the United Methodist Muleskinners Association (mountain music, gospel). Other musical groups are also expected to join in the celebration. In line with the free spirit of the event, the performers are donating their time, and volunteers help organize.

The summer series was conceived by Rochelle Harper and Gary Boswell, both well-known to secular audiences as members of The Rochelle Harper Band, now playing also as the Band of Faith. Recalling her years playing clubs and bars on the Gulf Coast, Harper says, "We bring our message to these secular venues whenever we can, but we also wanted an opportunity to play together in a truly Christian celebration and at the same time express the unity of all Christians, praising God through music. This series lets us work in fellowship with many ministers and churches in the area towards that goal."

The Praising in the Park format includes a guest host, a picnic atmosphere with donated drinks and food, and a broad range of musical styles. The Guest Host for this event will be Norman Cupit of Wade, member of the Caswell Springs United Methodist Church. Volunteers may reach him at 228-218-8856, cupitsigns@yahoo.com

The Praising in the Park series began in May with the first performance at Beach Park in Pascagoula. The second filled the Biloxi Town Green with over 200 folks in attendance and 20 different church congregations. In July, Praising in the Park was blessed to go on without being rained out. Folks were able to enjoy the 60's sounds of Jacob Blue and a true Praise and Worship feeling by the Brett McLaughlin Band. To date seven bands have contributed their music in three different communities. Bands and choruses interested in participating are urged to call 228-875-5375. Readers may find further information at www.PraisinginthePark.com.

Audience reaction from laymen and ministers has been strong. Bro. Eugene Edwards, Pastor of the Mississippi Korean Baptist Church, and worship leader Ram Heo warmly expressed their pleasure with the music and the concept of the event. José C. Luna of the Assembly of God in Lucedale said he was glad to see the group "pulling down the walls and together worshipping the One who is the author and the finisher." Roy Jackson, a member of Calvary Gulf Coast attending with his wife Pamela, said of the event, "Anytime all the children of Jesus get together, we can feel the presence of Christ. It doesn't matter what church, what color, what denomination." Courtney Cade, 13, a member of Lakeview Independent Baptist Church in Saucier, said she "liked the Gospel music. We brought the whole Youth Group - eight adults and fourteen young people." Chris Barlow of McHenry, a member of the Michael Memorial Baptist Church, is part of a seven family Bible study group. "We decided to make Praising in the Park this Saturday's meeting. It is very uplifting for all the churches in the area to get together like this. There are very few opportunities for that to happen."

How much is your Health Worth?

By Personal Trainer
Joe Ladnier

D'Iberville, MS--With today's rising cost of health insurance, wouldn't it make sense to take better care of ourselves? Unfortunately, most of us will have some type of major medical scare to realize that the life style that many of us are living is actually killing us! Over 70% of today's population is overweight and out of shape.....why is that?

Being a gym owner and personal trainer, I have heard just about every excuse in the book. The most popular excuse I hear the most is, "I don't have time to workout?" But, you know what my reply is every time? WRONG.. YOU HAVE TO MAKE TIME!!! Before work, during lunch or after work, the choice is yours....BUT, your going to have to make the choice and stick with it, to succeed.

Fitness is a way of life and for many, it's a total lifestyle change. I will use FAD dieting as example. How many of you have ever tried the latest diet program, lost the weight quickly, but then afterwards, put it all if not more back on? This is what I mean by lifestyle change.

Regardless of what you see on TV or read in the paper, there is no magic pill for getting into shape. Think back to the time of when you were in shape and then realize how long it's taken you to get this out of shape. Remember all the fast food, alcohol and cigarettes you put into your system and think of all the money you wasted doing it!

Have you ever heard that fitness is the fountain of youth? Take a look at someone who has been living a healthy lifestyle and then look at the person who hasn't..... Fitness is exactly why your seeing so many more seniors doing what they do today. My grandmother is a perfect example of a healthy lifestyle. She never stepped foot in a gym but she walked over a mile to and from work every day until she retired at 76 years young. She's still doing well today at the age of 98!

Now, when you do start your fitness program, be realistic with your goals and understand that it's not going to happen over night. If it took you 20 years to get out of shape, it will probably take more than a few weeks to get back and then you'll need a maintenance program to keep it. Most people don't realize that your body adapts to exercise, so for you to see the results you want, you must have constant change in your workouts. This is where I come in and it's my specialty!

Hello, my name is Joe Ladnier and I am a certified personal trainer with the International Sports Science Association (I.S.S.A.) I also own The Powerpit Gym in D'Iberville, Ms. and am the head trainer at the Beau Rivage Casino Spa.

Helping people achieve their fitness goals is what I really enjoy doing. I started training clients in 1979 and have since had clients from all over the world and from all walks of life. At the age of 41, I am the current masters world record holder in the bench press in the 242lb class with 733lbs. Having competed in powerlifting and bodybuilding from ametuer to professional throughout my life, I am very aware of dieting and nutritional supplements. For the last 4 years, I've been a contract athlete with Universal Nutrition and write articles for their online magazine www.animalpak.com. I also write for several other publications as well as doing seminars and strength exhibitions.

Some of the reason's I opened The Powerpit Gym are:

- 1) Bring back the meaning to a real workout where you can sweat and not worry about your makeup running or someone hitting on you between sets!
- 2) A working man's gym, where you can stop after work to train and not worry about getting dressed up.
- 3) Absolutely NO CONTRACTS! It's simple.....You don't pay, you don't train.....no more worry about those monthly withdrawals coming out of your checking account when times are tough or you can't make it to the gym.

Contact Joe Ladnier at 669-4240 or email through my website www.joeladnier.com

(Editor's Note: How many times have you been watching a show about the rich and famous and hear about how they got in shape with a personal trainer. Jessica Simpson getting that hot lil' body so that she could look great in those daisy dukes during her role in Dukes of Hazzard. Oprah looking fantastic for the first time in her life because she can afford to pay her personal trainer and personal chefs. Those VH1 specials showing stars like Madonna, Britney Spears, and others getting in shape with their personal trainers showing them the proper techniques and encouraging them to push themselves!! I don't know about you, but I always said, "Gosh, I wish I was rich and famous so that I could afford a high priced trainer to get my butt in shape!! I am so glad that I can share with all of you that you don't have to be rich and famous or have alot of money to get the same results!!

I recently learned that Beau Rivage Casino & Resort had hired one of the top personal trainers in the country, Joe Ladnier, to run their beautiful gym. Just for the heck of it, I dropped in on Joe one day just to chat with him and see what it would take to be trained by him!! How shocked I was to learn that I was not going to have to take out a personal loan just to hire him to get my fat a in shape!! For just $30 a session and working around my busy schedule, Joe would train me in a one on one training session that would focus on what kind of workout and the proper techniques I needed for my body type. I learned more in my first session with Joe than I had in the 26 years I have tried to get in shape!! I was feeling muscles I never knew I had and learning that I had been doing many of the machines and free weights completely wrong!! If you're not able to afford 5 sessions in a week, you can do a couple days with Joe, learn what is best for you, do them on your own for a couple weeks, and then come back to Joe to get some new workouts to change up your routine so that you can achieve the look you want!! He also has a website where he can set up a special workout and eating routine that is best for you. His personalized web workouts include videos of the proper techniques you should use when you're working out!!

I personally enjoy going to Joe's Powerpit Gym, not only because of the training I am receiving, but because many of the times I have worked out, it has only been Joe, my friend Mary and myself in there!! I don't feel inadequate next to someone that looks like they workout all day and never eat!! Not to mention that on the wall are some of the hottest women that Joe has trained in his career, swimsuit models, fitness competition competitors. Just seeing that he has helped these women get into shape to the point where they look like they came straight off the pages of Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Edition, gives me even more motivation to workout with Joe!! Knowing he trained each of those women gives me even more confidence that I can achieve the look I am wanting without the huge price tag most rich and famous are paying!! As long as I listen and learn from Joe, and implement everything he is telling me, I actually might be proud to get in a bathing suit by next summer!!)

Reaching Inside To Touch Your Soul!

Peace on Earth

God Bless Our Troops

I watched the flag pass by one day,
It fluttered in the breeze.

A young Marine saluted it,
And then he stood at ease..

I looked at him in uniform
So young, so tall, so proud,
With hair cut square and eyes alert
He'd stand out in any crowd.

I thought how many men like him
Had fallen through the years.
How many died on foreign soil
How many mothers' tears?

How many pilots' planes shot down?
How many died at sea
How many foxholes were soldiers' graves?
No, freedom isn't free.

I heard the sound of Taps one night,
When everything was still,
I listened to the bugler play
And felt a sudden chill.
I wondered just how many times
That Taps had meant "Amen,"

When a flag had draped a coffin.
Of a brother or a friend.

I thought of all the children,
Of the mothers and the wives,
Of fathers, sons and husbands
With interrupted lives.

I thought about a graveyard
At the bottom of the sea

Of unmarked graves in Arlington.
No, freedom isn't free.

Enjoy Your Freedom
& God Bless Our Troops

Her hair was up in a ponytail
Her favorite dress tied with a bow.
Today was Daddy's Day at school,
And she couldn't wait to go.

But her mommy tried to tell her,
That she probably should stay home.
Why the kids might not understand,
If she went to school alone.

But she was not afraid;
She knew just what to say.
What to tell her classmates
Of why he wasn't there today.

But still her mother worried,
For her to face this day alone.
And that was why once again,
She tried to keep her daughter home.

But the little girl went to school,
Eager to tell them all.
About a dad she never sees
A dad who never calls.

There were daddies along the wall in back, For everyone to meet.

Children squirming impatiently,
Anxious in their seats.

One by one the teacher called,
A student from the class.
To introduce their daddy,
As seconds slowly passed.

At last the teacher called her name,
Every child turned to stare.
Each of them was searching,
For a man who wasn't there..
"Where's her daddy at?"

She heard a boy call out.
"She probably doesn't have one,"
Another student dared to shout.

And from somewhere near the back,
She heard a daddy say,
"Looks like another deadbeat dad,
Too busy to waste his day."

The words did not offend her,
As she smiled up at her Mom.
And looked back at her teacher,
Who told her to go on.

And with hands behind her back,

Heart Tug of the Month

HER DADDY

Slowly she began to speak.
And out from the mouth of a child,
Came words incredibly unique.

"My Daddy couldn't be here,
Because he lives so far away.

But I know he wishes he could be,
Since this is such a special day.

And though you cannot meet him,
I wanted you to know..

All about my daddy,
And how much he loves me so.

He loved to tell me stories
He taught me to ride my bike.

He surprised me with pink roses,
And taught me to fly a kite.

We used to share fudge sundaes,
And ice cream in a cone.
And though you cannot see him,
I'm not standing here alone.
"Cause my daddy's always with me,
Even though we are apart
I know because he told me,
He'll forever be in my heart"

With that, her little hand reached up,
And lay across her chest.
Feeling her own heartbeat,

Beneath her favorite dress.
And from somewhere in the crowd of dads,
Her mother stood in tears.
Proudly watching her daughter,
Who was wise beyond her years.

For she stood up for the love
Of a man not in her life.
Doing what was best for her,
Doing what was right.

And when she dropped her hand back down,
Staring straight into the crowd.
She finished with a voice so soft,
But its message clear and loud.

"I love my daddy very much,
He's my shining star.
And if he could, he'd be here,
But heaven's just too far.

You see he was a fireman
And died just this past year
When airplanes hit the towers
And taught Americans to fear.

But sometimes when I close my eyes,
It's like he never went away."
And then she closed her eyes,
And saw him there that day.

And to her mother's amazement,
She witnessed with surprise.
A room full of daddies and children,
All starting to close their eyes.

Who knows what they saw before them,
Who knows what they felt inside.
Perhaps for merely a second,
They saw him at her side.

"I know you're with me Daddy,"
To the silence she called out.
And what happened next made believers,
Of those once filled with doubt.

Not one in that room could explain it,
For each of their eyes had been closed.
But there on the desk beside her,
Was a fragrant long-stemmed pink rose.

And a child was blessed,
if only for a moment,
By the love of her shining bright star.
And given the gift of believing,
That heaven is never too far

Remembering 9-11

The other day I was watching a documentary on PBS that was a very detailed account of the events of 9-11. As I sat there watching it, I started thinking to myself that although we remember 9-11, many of us getting all caught up in our own lives, high gas prices, and the war in Iraq, have really forgotten the feeling they felt that day as the planes crashed into the World Trade Center. How everyday life as we knew it was taken away from us that day!!

During the documentary images of the planes crashing into the Trade Center, the towers as they came tumbling down, and the Americans running for their lives as a wave of debris rushed through the streets of New York City just like the Tsunami that hit Thailand were flashed over and over again.

As I watched the PBS 9-11 special I became saddened at the lives that were lost that day, not to mention the numerous American Soldiers Lives that have been lost since, and how the true criminals that did this to our country have not been brought to justice or met the same fate they gave to my fellow Americans on that day.

September 11, 2005, 4 years since this horrible tragedy, Let us all take a moment and say a prayer for all of those countless lives that our country has lost!! Also say a prayer that those responsible will soon pay for what they did to our families and friends!!
